April 20, 2017

“Adversaries, Inc.,” an exhibition of works by artist Sean Paul ((b. 1978, Salt Lake City, UT) started on March 31 and will run through April 30, 2017 at David Lewis, New York.

The selection of works on display explores Paul's investigations into flawed systems, those that are deeply ingrained in our everyday lives. The artist delves into the conditioning of the human mind through technological systems we use on a daily, often minute-by-minute, second-to-second basis to communicate, create, entertain, study, protest, promote are derived from centralized, authoritarian systems of organization. Paul looks at the proverbial bomb and the adversarial culture that arose with it.
