10 Art Events to Attend in New York City This Week

by Alex Greenberger
December 12, 2016

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15

Opening: Viola Yeşiltaç at David Lewis

Viola Yeşiltaç's poetic, quiet work looks at how objects relate to their time and place. Having begun working in performance and later transitioning into being a photographer of sorts, the German-Turkish artist creates minimalist gestures that, despite their slapdash look, are carefully thought through. She's best known for a series of photographs of folded paper—they explore what happens when a two-dimensional object becomes three-dimensional. For this show, titled "Strawberry of Cosmo," Yeşiltaç will look to her own background for inspiration, looking at how, in a time where there's anxiety about immigration, images and people travel across borders. David Lewis, 88 Eldridge Street, 6-9 p.m.
